

World Book Day

The children have had a wonderful time today, dressing up as characters from their favourite picture books, writing letters to characters in their books, designing new front covers, making “Wanted” posters, etc. In the afternoon, the older children took the opportunity to share their picture books with the younger children, reading their stories together and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the whole experience.

