Reading Tasks

(Aim to do 1 per day)

- Ask your child to read a chapter from their home reading book.
- Your child can now design an alternative book cover for their chapter book.
- Why not ask your child to create a true or false quiz about a book that they have recently read. They can then test out the quiz on somebody else who has read the book.
- Authors love receiving mail from their readers. Your child can write a letter to their favourite author. Encourage them to visit their website first so that they can learn a little more about their chosen author. Why not send the letter and wait for a reply?

- Your child can log on to Oxford Owl and read a book that matches their book band. After this, direct your child to review the text and justify their opinion with examples from the text.

- Then ask your child to choose 5 Common Exception words. They can then write a synonym, antonym, the meaning and an example of how to use the word in a sentence.

<https://www.teachingideas.co.uk/synonyms-and-antonyms/synonyms-and-antonyms>

- Practise spellings – see attached.

- Your child can create their very own wordsearch. The theme of this should be ‘Celebrations’.

<http://www.word-search-world.griddler.co.uk/Word-Search-Generator.aspx>

- When proofreading their story, your child should be thinking about which words could be improved. They may want to use a thesaurus or on-line version to make sure their word choices paint a picture for the reader.

Writing Tasks

(Aim to spread these across the week)

- Get your child to create a newspaper report of the day they were born- include weather on the day, stories in the news, etc. Can they find any famous people who were born on that day? A Purple Mash 2do will be set.

- Celebrate a local person- ask your child to write a list of local people worth celebrating. Afterwards, get them to write an information report about the contribution the top three have made to their community.

- Birthdays should not be celebrated. Does your child agree or disagree with the statement above? Ask them to justify their opinion using facts.

- Story Task: As your child has now completed their draft version of their story, ask them to use this time to proofread their writing for any spelling or grammar errors. Following this, ask them to make sure the tense is consistent throughout and that the word choices they have made to convey meaning to the reader.

Celebrations

Some ideas to pick and choose to do throughout the week...

● Planning a Celebration- it's time to plan a celebration event of their choice. This could be a birthday party, an Eid celebration, a summer picnic or anything else they wish to plan. Tell them they have £150 to spend and 25 guests will be attending. What will the money be spent on? Ask them to plan the celebration considering the location of the event, how they will decorate the venue, what their guests will eat and drink and how they will entertain their guests. Get them to detail the timings of the event and any timings for preparation.

Time to Design- Can they imagine their perfect celebration outfit? What would it look like? What would it be made from? How comfortable would it need to be? Ask them to design a costume for a celebration of their choice. Think about the patterns they would like to incorporate on their design and the cultural traditions.

Birthdays around the World- Birthdays are celebrated differently in different countries. Write an information report detailing how birthdays are celebrated in the following countries: China, England, Spain, Italy and Mexico. Ask your child which country would they like to celebrate their birthday based on their findings? Why?

What's the same and what is different? - Select a holiday/festival of their choice and research how different countries around the world celebrate this event. They could compare whether it is celebrated at the same time, the outfits people wear, the food eaten etc. Make a video, poster or report of the things they have discovered.

British Celebrations- In Great Britain, Valentine's Day, St Patrick's Day and Bonfire Night are just some of the celebrations that take place. Ask your child to choose one celebration day and research how the celebration came to be. Using the information they have found, plot the events on a timeline and include dates, details and pictures/sketches. Now create a poster advertising the celebration day. This could be done on a computer programme of your choice or on paper.
